

“CONVERSATIONS about SUICIDE”

Asking someone if they are feeling suicidal can be a very daunting experience.

These guiding questions are designed to help you during this conversation so an individual can get the right help.

In a crisis it's important to remember to keep the person (and yourself) safe. Ways to do this include;

1. Staying with the person and keeping them calm
2. Letting the person know you care and you are here to listen
3. Keeping the person talking – don't judge
4. Supporting/encouraging the person to access help from friends, whanau or professionals such as a GP.

FIRST... check you are safe.

Now encourage the person to be assessed by a suitable health professional:

1. GP (if available immediately)
2. School Counsellor or Public Health Nurse (if suitable)
3. Community key worker (if they have one)
4. Taranaki DHB Crisis Team (Assessment & Brief Care Team) 0508 277 478. Sometimes you need to leave a message, and stay with the person.
5. Emergency Department
Take the person to;
Taranaki Base Hospital, David Street
Hawera Hospital, Hunter Street

The person has a specific plan, means and intent to carry it out, now what can you do?

WEAPONS, MEDICATION &/ OR OTHER MEANS PUTTING THEM AT IMMEDIATE DANGER. PHONE POLICE 111

MYTH

Asking people about suicide will increase the risk of suicide

FACT

No it won't.

Asking the questions may open up the conversation.

MYTH

There is no way of knowing who is going to attempt suicide

FACT

Sometimes there isn't, and there aren't always clear signs, but if there are they may look like this; changes in behaviour, increased stress, talking about death, feelings of being a burden or risk taking behaviour.

MYTH

Suicide is the result of a mental illness

FACT

Suicide can be the result of many factors including trauma, pain, grief or relationship breakups. A person who suicides will not necessarily have a mental health condition.

MYTH

Crisis prevention is not my responsibility.

FACT

The whole community needs to be involved in suicide prevention. Identifying and assisting individuals to work through their distress can prevent suicide from becoming an option.
