Taranaki Primary Connections (TPC) is a free counselling service for people with mild to moderate mental health needs who cannot financially meet the costs of private counselling.

TPC co-ordinates the brief intervention of counselling and psychological support following a referral from a health professional such as a GP, public health nurse or school guidance counsellor.

The service is Taranaki wide and is available for people 12 years and over. Individual needs are assessed by a health professional with personal circumstances taken into account when allocating a counsellor.

You have been offered sessions with the following:

They will contact you to arrange an appointment. If you have not heard from your counsellor within 5 working days of receiving this card, please contact the TPC co-ordinator.

If you are unable to keep your appointment, please give at least 24hrs notice so that your time slot can be re-allocated. You have the right to change provider. If you want to change providers, please contact your co-ordinator who can arrange alternative supports.
